T.R.I.B.E. DISTANCE-LEARNING PROGRAMME

WHAT IS T.R.I.B.E.?

T.R.I.B.E. is the name of the distance learning programme of the Native Bible Centre. The letters stand for TRAINING RESOURCES FOR INDIGENOUS BIBLE EDUICATION.

It is the purpose of the Native Bible Centre to assist believer and churches by providing Biblical resources that can be used to learn the Word of God. The T.R.I.B.E. programme is designed to give general Bible knowledge along with practical ministry skills for the believer.

The courses are divided into four categories:

1. Chronological Courses
2. Topical Courses
3. Practical Courses
4. Elective Courses

A student may take the courses for credit. The programme requires completion of fifteen courses from the Chronological, Topical and Practical categories. A Bible certificate is awarded upon completion of the first five. A second certificate is awarded upon the completion of an additional five. When the student has completed fifteen courses, a Bible diploma is awarded. If taking TRIBE courses for a diploma, the Chronological courses must be completed in sequence, as each one builds on the previous one as they go through the Bible. If not working towards a diploma, a student may take the courses in any order. Three courses from category four (Elective Courses) may be substituted for any three courses in categories two or three.

ONLINE BIBLE COURSES

What Do Students Say About T.R.I.B.E. Courses?

- The Big Picture put into order where each book of the Bible fits. It helped me make sense of the Bible and keep straight God's order of things.
- In the Beginning showed me how God set up things in the Old Testament to point to Jesus and His death on the cross.
- The course Powerful Preaching taught me the difference between concrete thinking and abstract thinking. Concrete thinking is something you can touch – like trees or people. Abstract is like sin or forgiveness – there are no pictures for these things. The Old Testament is concrete teaching. The books of Romans through Ephesians in the New Testament are abstract. To preach clearly, I need to explain abstract things in a concrete way.
- One of the greatest lessons I learned from In the Beginning is that God is holy and because of my nature of sin I cannot go directly to God. I need someone to go to God for me, on my behalf, like a priest. Jesus is that Someone – He is my priest.
- After taking the course The Big Picture, I now have a clearer understanding of how and why Israel is important in the Old and New Testaments.
- In Spirit World I learned the four principles for defeating Satan:
 - Rely on God's power,
 - always be on the alert,
 - put on the armor of God and
 - always pray.
- The main thing I learned in the course Chief People is that the Israelites were sinful. Animal sacrifices were offered each year for the forgiveness of sins. But then Jesus Christ took over for those offerings. He is the Chief Priest and the ultimate sacrifice. Man can only come to God through Him.
